

FISCAL NOTE

HB 222 - SB 205

February 2, 2001

SUMMARY OF BILL:

- Prohibits hunting, pursuing or killing of any big game within 100 yards of a visible dwelling house without written permission of the owner if such property is located in the boundaries of Shelby, Davidson, Knox or Hamilton Counties.
- Establishes first violation as a Class B misdemeanor, punishable only by a fine of $500. A second or subsequent violation is a Class B misdemeanor with the provision that it is mandatory upon the court to impose the prison sentence, upon conviction for a second or subsequent offense and the prison sentence is not subject to suspension.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

Impact depends upon the number of persons convicted of this offense and the resulting increased cost to local governments to confine such persons versus the increased revenues to local governments from fines levied and collected under the provisions of this bill.
